

Creative Office Resources Expands to the Midwest with Acquisition of Continental Office

Creative Office Resources is proud to announce the acquisition of Continental Office effective October 29, 2025. Located in Columbus, Ohio, the purchase marks COR's first presence in the Midwest and represents a significant step in expanding the company's national footprint.

Columbus, OH – November 4, 2025

Creative Office Resources (COR), a MillerKnoll Certified Dealer and WBENC-Certified WBE, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Continental Office, a respected MillerKnoll dealer based in Columbus, Ohio, effective October 29, 2025. This acquisition marks COR's first expansion into the Midwest, extending its reach to serve clients across the United States.

Founded in 1939, Continental Office provides comprehensive workplace solutions to clients throughout the Columbus region. With a team of more than 80 employees, the company delivers furniture, interior construction, and branding solutions, creating purposeful work environments and guiding clients to achieve their organizational goals. Over the years, Continental Office has built lasting relationships with a diverse range of clients by consistently delivering reliable, customized solutions.

"Paul, Kevin, and I are thrilled to welcome Continental Office to the COR team," said Denise Horn, CEO and Partner of Creative Office Resources. "This partnership represents an exciting step in our company's growth and reflects our ongoing commitment to creating environments where people connect, collaborate, and thrive. Continental Office shares our values and dedication to service, making them an ideal fit for the next chapter of COR's expansion."

"As longstanding MillerKnoll partners, Creative Office Resources and Continental Office share a deep commitment to creating thoughtful, high-performing spaces," said John Michael, President of the Americas, MillerKnoll. "Creative Office Resources' acquisition of Continental Office will fuel continued growth in the region as Continental is now in an even stronger position to provide clients with the expertise and insights needed to create innovative workspaces that meet the evolving demands of today's offices, schools and healthcare facilities."

"We are proud to become part of Creative Office Resources and begin this new chapter as Continental Office, A COR Company," said Ira Sharfin, CEO of Continental Office. Kyle Johnson, President of Continental Office, added, "Denise and the COR team have been valued partners for many years, collaborating on projects and sharing knowledge as fellow MillerKnoll dealers. Joining COR gives our team access to broader resources, deep industry expertise, and the strength of a national organization, all while preserving the local relationships and client-focused approach that have defined our success.”

As part of the transition, Continental Office will operate as Continental Office, A COR Company. COR will serve as the parent company, providing strategic support and ensuring a seamless experience for both clients and employees.

This acquisition positions COR to bring its design innovation and exceptional service to a completely new region. This milestone expands COR's physical presence while strengthening its commitment to combining national resources with local relationships, bringing the company's trusted experience and service excellence to the Midwest.

About Creative Office Resources

Creative Office Resources (COR), a WBENC Certified Women's Business Enterprise and one of the largest MillerKnoll Certified Dealers in North America, creates environments where people connect, collaborate, and thrive. With more than 35 years of experience, our team delivers expertise at scale with a personalized touch, offering furniture and prefabricated interior construction solutions that bring each client's vision to life. Backed by over 400 employees across multiple offices and warehouses in New England and the Tri State area, COR combines industry leading technology, diverse expertise, and a collaborative approach to deliver spaces that empower people and organizations. Learn more at creativeofficeresources.com, on Instagram @creativeofficeresources, and LinkedIn (Creative Office Resources).

About Continental Office

Since 1939, Continental Office has been designing and delivering intentional work environments that inspire clients and partners to rethink the way they work. The company provides furniture, interior construction, and branding solutions that allow organizations to focus on their business goals while bringing their culture to life. By developing tailored solutions for each project, Continental Office delivers results across Ohio that set it apart from others. For more information, please visit continentaloffice.com.