Continental Office is excited to announce the addition of Knoll to its scope of solutions in central Ohio, becoming the Herman Miller and Knoll dealer for the region. Adding to a growing list of offerings, this development immediately brings the full Knoll family of iconic brands to Continental Office, including KnollStudio, Knoll Office, Muuto, Holly Hunt, DatesWeiser, and more.

"We're thrilled to welcome Knoll alongside Herman Miller and our wide scope of offerings," said Ira Sharfin, CEO of Continental Office. "This addition is an exciting step for both our organization and our clients, with the full range of Herman Miller and Knoll solutions now under one roof," Sharfin said. With this addition, Continental Office will immediately add Knoll products to its list of full-scale commercial interior solutions, serving clients with Herman Miller, Knoll, and the 19 collective MillerKnoll brands across the region.

This latest addition to its furniture business (combined with full commercial flooring, interior construction, branding, and maintenance capabilities) strongly secures the company's position as central Ohio's largest commercial furniture provider, now with more solutions than ever to create great spaces that inspire.
